July 27, 2020

To all Members, Patrons, and Guests,

The Board of Governors of the Warner Robins Little Theatre, Inc. has become aware of the pandemic's increase. Therefore, the members have decided to suspend AGAIN all productions for the remainder of the physical year 2020. CRY HAVOC & DIAL M FOR MURDER will be rescheduled for the Fall of 2021.

Our current production of THE RED VELVET CAKE WAR will proceed beginning July 31 and continuing through August 1, 2, 7, 8, 9, 14, & 15. Only fifty (50) audience members are allowed admission. All seats are reserved and spread throughout the house for social distancing. Government regulations will be followed. Masks are available and requested. Temperatures will be taken, and sanitizer is available. The theater will be cleaned between performances.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact us via our email www.wrlt.org or our Facebook page, or through the box office phone #478-929-4579.

We appreciate your continued support. Be sure to use WRLT on your Kroger card account and Amazon Smiles. Donations are greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Richard Hamilton
